Holistic government for an e-enabled world

- Automate or Augment? Doug Engelbart
- It's technical, managerial and social
- It's a lot of money but values matter more
- UK as a case of "Stage one"
- Ideal Government: what do we want from e-government?
- What next for ICA? Integrative complexity

ICA members spend $285bn on civil administration ICTs in 2005

$285bn on ICTs is $241 per head, and 2.6% of total civil government spend
